PRESS RELEASE

Amalgamated Life Names Thomas E. Hennigan Sales Executive

White Plains, NY. . . . August 11, 2014

Amalgamated Life Insurance Company, (www.amalgamatedlife.com), a leading provider of life and health insurance, recently announced the appointment of Thomas E. Hennigan as Sales Executive. Hennigan brings over 14 years of direct business development experience in the insurance industry, as well as a strong background in collective bargaining agreement negotiations.

Directly prior to joining Amalgamated Life, Hennigan served as the Regional Sales Manager for The Union Labor Life Insurance Company (ULLICO, Washington, DC). There, he led the sales of the company's group life and health insurance products to Taft/Hartley and employer groups, recording a consistently strong performance across a territory from New York to Florida.

He began his professional insurance career at the Graphic Communications International Union, (GCIU, Washington, DC) as an International Representative with responsibility for negotiating collective bargaining agreements with the largest groups in the organization. His skills enabled him to achieve progressive contract settlements without incurring any work stoppages. In this former position, he also initiated and lead seminars for the GCIU Contract Research and Educational Department.

Hennigan's higher education includes studies at the Antioch University's George Meany Center for Labor Studies and at the University of Scranton where he majored in Business Administration. He also participated in numerous Continuing Education courses in topics ranging from union organizing and grievance handling to labor arbitration preparation and presentation, labor law and mutual interest/mutual gains bargaining.

He resides in Dunmore, Pennsylvania.
