PRESS RELEASE

Amalgamated Life Celebrates Its 70th Anniversary with Elected Officials, Industry and Community Leaders

White Plains, NY. . . . October 23, 2013

October 22, 2013 was declared Amalgamated Life Recognition Day in Westchester County in celebration of the 70th anniversary of Amalgamated Life (www.amalgamatedlife.com), a leading provider of life and health insurance. The announcement was made by Westchester Deputy County Executive Kevin Plunkett, who was one of several elected officials on hand to celebrate this corporate milestone. Deputy County Executive Plunkett, speaking on behalf of County Executive Robert Astorino, presented a Proclamation to Amalgamated Life President and CEO David Walsh and Chairman of the Board Noel Beasley.

Also presenting Proclamations to Walsh and Beasley were New York Senator George Latimer (37th Senate District) and White Plains Mayor Thomas Roach. City Council Member John Kirkpatrick was also in attendance. While not able to attend, Westchester County Legislator William Ryan (5th District) and New York State Assemblywoman Amy Paulin (88th District) sent Proclamations acknowledging Amalgamated Life's extraordinary tenure.

Among those representing business and industry at the event: Thomas Workman, Diane Stuto and Jana Lee Pruitt of Life Insurance Council of New York; Stephen Jones, Esq. of the Business Council of Westchester; Jim DeLauro of Frank Crystal & Co.; Chris Howley of Swiss Re; Norm Freimark of SWSCHP and Steve Acunto of CINN Group, Inc. The region's nonprofit sector was also represented by Derek Wertz and Patrick Coviello of the Boy Scouts of America.

Amalgamated Life's 70th anniversary ceremony took place in the lobby of the company's headquarters at 333 Westchester Avenue in White Plains, which Mayor Roach pointed out was the home of one of New York City's first corporations to relocate to White Plains – General Foods. In addition to acknowledging the company's visionary founder, Sidney Hillman, Walsh also recognized the over 63 Amalgamated Life employees with over 25 years or more of service, each of whom wore a white carnation to signify their longevity.
