PRESS RELEASE

Amalgamated Life Receives Its 38th Consecutive A.M. Best “A” (Excellent) Rating

White Plains, NY...June 5, 2013

Amalgamated Life (www.amalgamatedlife.com), a leading provider of life and health insurance, once again has received the “A” (Excellent) rating from A.M. Best, a full-service credit rating organization dedicated to serving the insurance industry. It is a clear indication of the company’s strong financial condition and excellent claims-paying ability. For insurance policyholders, the A.M. Best rating is a way for them to receive an objective assessment of the financial strength and creditworthiness of risk-bearing entities, as well as investment vehicles.

Amalgamated Life President and Chief Executive Officer David Walsh was understandably proud of his organization’s continuing “winning” streak in gaining A.M. Best’s “A” rating. He stated, “We recognize the responsibility we as an insurance company have to be fiscally responsible and responsive to our policyholders’ needs. Both our fiscal performance and claims handling processes are top priorities. Having A.M. Best confirm that we are performing at the top of our game affirms the efficacy of our processes and high standards.”

Amalgamated Life’s Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer Paul Mallen added that, “Metric-based goals have enabled us to stay focused on our core values which, in turn, have led to our consistently strong financials and high quality service.”
