Amalgamated Life Insurance Company Earns Another “Excellent” Rating from Weiss Ratings

White Plains, NY... July 21, 2014

Amalgamated Life Insurance Company, (www.amalgamatedlife.com), a leading provider of life and health insurance, has once again earned a financial strength rating of “A-“ or “Excellent” from Weiss Ratings (Jupiter, FL, www.weissratings.com), the nation’s leading independent provider of ratings and analyses of financial service companies, mutual funds, and stocks.

According to the congratulatory letter Amalgamated Life President and CEO David J. Walsh received from Weiss, “This rating recognizes Amalgamated Life as a “Weiss Recommended” insurer offering financial stability for its customers, vendors and employees. Achieving this Weiss Financial Strength Rating is a true distinction.”

In receiving the news, Walsh said, “We are in the business of helping individuals and businesses gain financial security and peace of mind. As an organization, we are confident that our processes and procedures enable us to maintain our strong fiscal integrity and performance. The Weiss rating lets the marketplace know this is true and assures customers that when they place their trust in Amalgamated Life’s products and services, we will do everything to continue to earn that trust.”

Weiss Ratings evaluates over 19,000 institutions every quarter to assess their performance. These institutions include life and annuity insurers, health insurers, property and casualty insurers, banks and credit unions. The company uses a proprietary model which encompasses more rigorous standards than other rating agencies and places greater emphasis on a company’s future financial solvency, as well as its ability to withstand severe economic adversity. Therefore, companies which achieve an “Excellent” rating distinguish themselves as having true financial strength and being among the industry’s elite.
